Why Study Fiction?

- Not just stories.
- It is a kind of philosophy, a Weltanschauung.
- Emile Zola: it is a scientific experiment, a touchstone of humanity.
- It is a moral teaching.
- Try to relate to yourself, and save the literary terms for later.

Analysis or Interpretation

- You can analyze by breaking down the fiction into chapters, sections, characters, viewpoints, symbols, etc.
- You can interpret by putting the fiction into certain biographical, historical, socio-economic, cultural, and political contexts.
